POLICY: Honors Convocation

A. Purpose & Scope:
To describe the process and procedures for recognition at Honors Convocation

B. Definition(s):

C. Policy:
A baccalaureate degree-seeking student designated as a Presidential Scholar must have a cumulative GPA of 3.25 in a baccalaureate program and have completed 60 credits (junior) and 90 credits (senior), of which at least 30 must have been taken at California (calculated beyond an associate degree or other first degree, if applicable, and in the present baccalaureate degree program). An associate degree-seeking student designated as a Presidential Scholar must have a cumulative GPA of 3.25 at California and have completed 45 credits; all of which must have been taken at this university. Both full-time and part-time students may, if qualified, be named Presidential Scholars.

D. Procedure(s):
The university recognizes, encourages and rewards academic excellence on the part of master’s, baccalaureate, and associate degree-seeking students by naming Presidential Scholars at the annual Honors Convocation in the spring semester. This award is a unique distinction, separate and apart from Commencement Honors.
