Cal U Global Online

Our Global Online is a worldwide learning community providing convenient, state-of-the-art classroom delivery of quality academic programs. Cal U's Global Online programs are delivered completely over the Internet, allowing students to complete their studies from any computer with Internet access. Asynchronous courses provide access to classes, anywhere, any place. It is the perfect way to reach educational goals while maintaining a balance between work and home life.

Is an online program right for you?

Online courses are best suited for you if you are comfortable working with basic computer programs, e-mail, web browsers, graphics and streaming videos. Though online courses allow for schedule flexibility, assignments are challenging and require proactive student participation, organization and planning. If you enjoy working independently, need a convenient and adjustable program, and would not hesitate to ask for clarification by phoning or e-mailing your professor, you are positioned to do well with online courses.

A path to your success

The 100% online Master of Science in Exercise Science and Health Promotion at California University of Pennsylvania is designed for working professionals and recent bachelor's degree graduates in the health and fitness industry, including certified athletic trainers, physical therapists, health and physical education teachers, chiropractors, personal trainers, business owners, wellness counselors, military personnel, coaches, and other health / fitness professionals.

The 12-month, 30-credit program is 100% web based — students never have to come to campus. Students work, learn, and communicate online and function as a group of interactive peers. This virtual community or cohort of 35-40 students — creates a lively, dynamic educational experience that enriches the collaborative skills essential in the contemporary health care and fitness workplace. The flexibility of the online program allows professionals or military personnel, who would be precluded from attending graduate school in the traditional sense, to complete the MS program while still maintaining their full-time positions.

PROGRAM FEATURES

Four distinct program tracks are available, with each track also being offered as a post-graduate certificate to those who already have a master's degree.

- Wellness and Fitness
- Sport Performance Enhancement
- Rehabilitation Science
- Sport Psychology

Each track includes specific coursework to prepare for one of three NASM certification examinations:

- Certified Personal Trainer (CPT)
- Performance Enhancement Specialist (PES)
- Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES)

“Our students are respected professionals in their individual disciplines.”
