MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR THE HOMELAND SECURITY REVIEW

The Institute for Law and Public Policy at California University of Pennsylvania publishes The Homeland Security Review, an interdisciplinary, peer reviewed journal devoted to the discussion and analysis of issues related to the subject of homeland security. The Editor, Dr. Jeffrey Magers, or Assistant Editor Hope Haywood, look forward to receiving your thoughtful and substantive manuscripts. Any questions should be directed as follows:

Dr. Jeffrey Magers: magers@calu.edu
Hope Haywood: haywood@calu.edu

ACCEPTABLE MANUSCRIPT TOPICS

The Review is a forum for those laboring in the field of homeland security. Topics relating to law, science, policing, emergency management, infrastructure security, fire protection, public policy and other related fields are invited.

WHO MAY SUBMIT?

Anyone may submit an original article to be considered for publication provided he or she owns the copyright to the work being submitted or is authorized by the copyright owner or owners to submit the article. The author is responsible for obtaining permission to publish any copyrighted material and will indemnify The Review, California University of Pennsylvania and the Institute for Law and Public Policy in the event of a copyright challenge or violation.

LENGTH

The Review is interested in publishing manuscripts (including all references, tables and figures) between 15 and 25 pages in length, or between 6000 and 8000 words. Book reviews should be limited to 1500 words and commentaries should be limited to 1000 words.

ITEMS TO SUBMIT

Authors must submit the typed, page-numbered, double-spaced manuscript (font size of 12), a 150 word abstract, a 100 word biographical statement and current resume or vitae. In addition, authors must supply all artwork (charts, diagrams, maps) used as figures or exhibits. All documents must be submitted electronically in .rtf or .doc format and be MS Windows compatible. Manuscripts should be e-mailed to Dr. Magers or Ms. Haywood at the addresses above or to the general email of the Institute for Law and Public Policy at instlaw_pubpol@calu.edu.

PEER REVIEW

All submissions are subject to a “blind” peer review process. Each article submitted will be reviewed by a peer referee for significance and scholarliness. Authors will be informed within a reasonable period of time whether the submission is accepted, requires revision prior to publication, or is rejected. All accepted manuscripts are subject to editing by the editorial staff.
CITATION STYLE

All manuscripts must conform to the documentation pattern set forth in one of the following publications:

PREVIOUSLY PUBLISHED WORKS

Submitted articles, previously published, may, with proper permission, be suitable for publication. Please note that “publication” in a working-paper series does not constitute prior publication. In addition, by submitting to The Review, the author stipulates that the material is not currently under review at another journal (electronic or print) and that he or she will not submit the material to another journal (electronic or print) until the completion of the editorial decision process at The Review.
