Summer Institute 2014

This year’s theme is: Soldiers, Sailors & Sources from the Civil War

This one-day workshop is an Act 48, 6-hour Continuing Education professional development event offered to K-12 educators. This workshop is designed to help educators understand the value of using primary sources from Soldiers & Sailors Museum collections and the Library of Congress’ online digital collections for Common Core standards-aligned teaching and learning. There is no cost to attend but registration is limited to 40, on a first-come-first-served basis.

You will work collaboratively and individually to:

♦ Access and analyze local, state, and national Civil War primary sources from Soldiers & Sailors and the Library of Congress.
♦ Examine primary source-based lessons that are already prepared for classroom implementation.
♦ Learn how to prepare a Teacher Reflection to complete TPS Level II professional development.
♦ Join the TPS Teachers Network (an online professional learning community) to connect with colleagues across the nation.
