

2017 Strike a Spark Acknowledgements

The following are recognized for their generous financial support for Strike a Spark:

- ★ Linda '64 and Dr. Harry '65 Serene
- ★ Cengage Learning

Special gratitude is extended to the following organizations whose members have served as judges each of the conference's three years:

- ★ The Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement
- ★ The Senator John Heinz History Center

Special thanks to the following for their dedication to the planning, organizing, and execution of the numerous details associated with Strike a Spark:

- ★ Laurie Ganey, Graduate Student
- ★ Maggie Habeeb, FPDC, URAC & Math, CS & IS Department
- ★ Jonathan Hoover, Undergraduate Student
- ★ Leandro Junes, FPDC Co-chair Research Subcommittee & Math, CS & IS Department
- ★ Dana Keener, Psychology Department
- ★ Keat Murray, FPDC & English Department
- ★ Rayanne Nazario, Undergraduate Student
- ★ Louise Nicholson, FPDC & Department of Biological and Environmental Sciences
- ★ Valerie Paulisick, Department of Social Work
- ★ Loring Prest, URAC & Manderino Library
- ★ Bev Ross, Serene Leadership Institute and Psychology Department
- ★ Ivy Savidge, Undergraduate Student
- ★ Leah Seader, Undergraduate Student
- ★ Mark Tebbitt, URAC & Department of Biological and Environmental Sciences
- ★ Robin Weaver, Department of Nursing

URAC - Undergraduate Research Advisory Council

FPDC – Faculty Professional Development Committee

The following are recognized for key contributions to the success of Strike a Spark:

- ★ Julie Kingsley and Pam Luko for the many hours they spent printing signs, fliers, these programs and, especially, the many student posters.
- ★ Lindsey Bullis of the Convocation Center for her attention to detail and cooperation in meeting the needs and expectations of Strike a Spark.
- ★ Campus Services for delivery, set-up, tear-down, and return of the poster display panels.