Merit Award Guidelines

Evaluation Process:

- GRANTS AND CONTRACTS: The Grants and Contracts Subcommittee will review the following in support of a nominee's application*:
  1. Grantsmanship statement of purpose which will include:
     a) Professional grantsmanship objective(s)
     b) Perceived impact of grants including the nature of the grants overall (1 page)
  2. Summary page of each grant received at California University of Pennsylvania which should include (one page per grant):
     a) Project/grant title
     b) Granting Agency/Organization
     c) Start and end dates
     d) Project/grant summary
     e) Total funding amount received, pending, and/or not funded
     f) Indicate if grant was/is a continuation of funding

*Materials should be organized into a binder in the order above.

One or more collaborators may share the award – but collaborators must also provide evidence of scholarship in the area of grantsmanship. While collaborators may be nominated as a team, each will be responsible for submitting his/her application materials for consideration. Nomination and receipt of the award doesn't exclude members of the FPDC and its associated subcommittees; nor does it exclude individuals who may be nominated for other FPDC awards during the same academic year.

Nominees who provide the required information will be asked to participate in an interview with a quorum of the FPDC Grants Subcommittee members. At the interview, all nominees will be asked the same series of questions and will provide further insights into the documentation provided. Interviews will be approximately twenty minutes to one half hour in length.

Following the interview(s), the quorum will vote by ballot to select the award winner.

- RESEARCH: In evaluating the nominations, the subcommittee will put greatest emphasis on research or creative activity completed during the last five years. Nominees will be evaluated on the quality of their research or creative activity according to the following criteria:
  1. Quality of the vehicle for dissemination of the research or creative activity (e.g., conference presentations, publication, public lectures, exhibits, etc., as appropriate to the discipline).
  2. Quality of recognition for research or creative activity (e.g., awards, grants).
  3. Impact of the research or creative activity.
  4. Currency of research or creative activity.

- SERVICE AND SERVICE-LEARNING: Service Learning is defined as a process whereby participants are in a formalized learning situation (i.e., a course, workshop, seminar, field, or study abroad, etc.) that uses a service opportunity/setting to fulfill the learning objectives of the formal education component. Service may be defined as personal episodic contributions of your time and/or talents, through volunteer activities or civic engagement, intended to help or assist others within the community, the university, a professional organization, etc. Members of the Service and Service Learning Committee will anonymously rate each application according to the criteria listed on the rubric (below), as well as
  1. Your current vita and
  2. One or more letters of reference that attest to your qualifications to receive the award – one letter is required. The evaluating criteria must be referenced in the letters of reference. Please do not include any additional supporting materials. In order to be evaluated fairly, all applications must contain the same items.
Merit Award Guidelines

Evaluations will occur in the FPDC office. Evaluations will be placed in a sealed envelope and given to the administrative assistant. The chair(s) of the subcommittee will then tally the totals for each application. The highest score will reflect the person chosen to receive the Merit Award. Please specify within your application materials whether you consider your work as service or as service learning.

Process:

Nominators must complete a nomination form and submit it to the Faculty Center by the deadline date. The committee reserves the right to request an interview with the nominee and/or solicit additional information.

- Processing Steps:
  - a) Using the cover sheet provided, the nominator (and three endorsers, if required) should prepare and submit a nomination. While it is not required, we recommend that you inform the nominated faculty member of your intention to submit this nomination.
b) The Faculty Professional Development Subcommittee will ask the nominated professor if he/she wishes the nomination to proceed.
c) The faculty member (upon accepting the nomination) will assist the subcommittee in the collection of further data, including a current vita.
d) The nominations and supporting faculty essays will be reviewed by the Subcommittee.

Honors and Award:
The merit award recipients are honored at the Merit Award/FPDC Recognition Event where they are given certificates and honors cords to wear at the Commencement ceremony where they are also honored for their achievement. In addition, each awardee receives $1000.00 to use in professional development activities. Funds must be utilized within one year of the date of the award. Merit awardees will also be invited to subsequently join the membership of the awarding subcommittee.

Funding Procedure:
The merit award funds must be used within one year of the date of the award. To obtain the funds, the awardee must send an e-mail message to fpdc@calu.edu with specific details of the expenditure that is being requested. Include in the e-mail message:

1. the name and term of the award that will fund the expenditure;
2. a complete description of the item (i.e., cost, vendor information, justification for the expenditure, etc.);
3. the ten-digit SAP funds center number for the faculty member's department.
4. Funds will be transferred to the faculty member's department funds center upon receipt of the documentation verifying the expenditure (i.e., receipts, paid invoices, etc.).

Deadline:
All nominations must be received at the Faculty Center on or before Noon on February 15. If this deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, the deadline will be extended to the next business day.

Announcement of Awards:
Merit Awards will be announced at the Spring Commencement Ceremony.
