

CAL U ACCOUNTING

Each semester California University collects performance data from course-embedded assessments. California University Accounting Majors have demonstrated superior performance in the area of applying accounting principles to the measurement and reporting of accounting information.

Finance Program Learning Objective 2: Prepare the financial statements in accordance with current accounting principles and learn how each statement is used for business decision making.

Assessment Tool: Excel financial statement analysis project comparing financial statement data from competing organizations

