

M.Ed. in Educational Leadership: Educational Studies

Program Description

The Educational Studies concentration of the Master of Education in Educational Leadership is designed to be a master's degree-completion program. The program does not lead to teacher certification.

Program Coordinator

Dr. Connie Monroe

Delivery Mode

Global Online (100% online delivery)

Curriculum

Course	Credits
ADP 664 Field Project/Leadership	3
ADP 673 Field Project/Research and Evaluation	3
Focus Area in Education	12
Cognate Courses	12
Total	30

Program Notes:

- Program entry requirement: a grade of B or higher in at least 12 credits of prior graduate courses from a single graduate education program.
- Upon entry into the program, the student must identify their focus area, which includes at least 12 credits in a single graduate education program. The student will provide a philosophy statement and rationale to be approved by the coordinator.
- Student prepares a portfolio in the focus area for faculty review related to accreditation and program review.
- The cognate courses are graduate courses that may be in several different disciplines related to the student's interests or their chosen focus.
- Students must seek permission of departments to take program-specific courses.
- This program does not lead to teacher certification.

Program Webpage

<https://www.calu.edu/academics/graduate/masters/education-online/educational-leadership-educational-studies/index.aspx>