

Psychology Graduate Programs

Certificate in Threat Assessment and Management in Schools

Program Description

The Threat Assessment and Management in Schools certificate program combines psychology and criminal justice courses to create a professional development credential designed for higher education personnel and K-12 educators. The program helps education professionals learn to identify threatening situations in school settings and respond appropriately.

Curriculum

Course	Credits
CRM 870 Special Topics: Threat Assessment in the Schools	3
PSY 741 Theories of Counseling and Psychotherapy	3
PSY 756 Consultation and Group Process	3
Total	9

Program Webpage

<https://www.calu.edu/academics/graduate/certificates/threat-assessment-management/index.aspx>