

End Violence Center

The End Violence Center works proactively to raise awareness and provide prevention education for the campus community on the issues of sexual violence, intimate partner violence and stalking. In addition, the Center works reactively to offer survivors and secondary victim's advocacy, crisis intervention, supportive services and outreach.

The End Violence Center is located in Room 117 of Natali Student Center or call 724-938-5707.