

Minor in Social Work

Program Description

The Social Work minor provides students with a fundamental knowledge of social work processes and theories of human behavior in the social environment. It facilitates an understanding of social work as an allied profession or further study in the field.

Curriculum

Course	Credits
Social Work Program Requirements	18
SOW 150 Introduction to Social Work	3
SOW 201 Interviewing for the Human Services	3
SOW 208 Diversity in a Changing World	3
SOW 215 Human Behavior and the Social Environment I: Life Course	3
SOW 316 Human Behavior and the Social Environment II: Groups, Organizations and Communities	3
SOW 360 Social Welfare History, Policy Analysis and Social Service Delivery	3
General Education (Health and Wellness)	3
SOW 303 Human Sex and Society	3
Total	21

Program Notes: Contact the Department of Health and Human Services for a permit override for SOW 303 and 360.