

California University of Pennsylvania

POLICY: Associate Degree after Bachelors

A. Purpose & Scope:

To describe the requirements for completing an associate degree after already having earned a bachelor degree at California University of Pennsylvania

B. Definition(s):

C. Policy:

If a student has earned a baccalaureate degree at California University and wishes to then pursue an associate degree at California University, a minimum of 15 additional credits must be successfully completed and all requirements of the associate degree must be met. The University will not award an associate degree to a student who holds a baccalaureate degree in the same area of study.

D. Procedure(s):

E. Effective date: April 23, 2010

Updated date: August 15, 2010